Call for Contributions

We welcome article submissions from professionals at all career stages. Whether you are sharing research, practical innovation, sector commentary, case studies, or personal insight, your voice contributes to the strength and diversity of our community.

If you have not published with us before, we strongly encourage you to take the step. The Tech Magazine provides a supportive and professional platform to showcase your expertise and connect with peers across the sector.

Join the Editorial Board

As the Magazine continues to grow, we are also inviting expressions of interest from members who would like to contribute to the Editorial Board. Serving on the Board offers the opportunity to:

- Support the peer review process
- Shape the direction of future issues
- Contribute to maintaining the publication's quality and integrity
